Dan Storck

Fairfax County Supervisor

Welcome to the Mount Vernon District

This is a great place to live, educate your children, grow your career and engage with your neighbors. The Mount Vernon District is where history, heritage, outdoor living, educational opportunities and public safety come together to support our exciting future! To keep up to date, visit our website (www.fairfaxcounty.gov/mountvernon) to sign up for our newsletter, follow us on Facebook, Instagram and LinkedIn and learn about a myriad of District projects, important topics, area activities and upcoming events in your community.

My primary areas of focus as your Mount Vernon District Supervisor include economic development, environmental activism, affordable housing, workforce development, public safety, and increasing tourism opportunities. However, my number one priority is always you and our office is here to help! Team MVD provides timely constituent service as we continue to build the ideal community in which to live and thrive. We are committed to performance standards that ensure we are a responsive, transparent, and informative office. We are here to answer your questions and will respond to your communications within two business days or less.

Have a question about road construction, snow removal, trash collection, stormwater runoff or voting precincts? Email us at mtvernon@fairfaxcounty.gov. Want to book a community room for a meeting, or not a fan of email? Call us at 703-780-7518. Need a document notarized or just want to visit your District Governmental Center to see local government in action? Stop by our office. I also have extended office hours on Thursdays and the second Saturday of each month, walk-ins and appointments are always welcomed.

Respectfully yours in public service,

Senior Citizen Guide

Fairfax County is working together to continue creating a vibrant, active community where people want to stay as they grow older! The Fairfax County Board of Supervisors, together with the Fairfax Area Commission on Aging, has worked with the community to create the Fairfax County 50+ Community Action Plan. Read the Full Fairfax 50+ Community Action Plan online at the Fairfax County Government Website. It includes summaries of the Fairfax 50+ Plan Proposed Initiatives:

- Community Engagement
- Services for Older Adults and Caregivers
- Long-Range Planning & Trends Analysis
- Safe and Healthy Community
- Housing
- Transportation

Want to get involved? Call 703-324-7746
or email DFSCommunity@fairfaxcounty.gov

Programs for Active Adults

Senior Centers for Active Adults offer opportunities to make friends, stay on the move and learn new things. Offerings include classes, health and wellness programs, computer and internet access, trips and tours, and opportunities to socialize and stay connected. There is an annual fee for attending the senior centers. Go to www.fairfaxcounty.gov/dfs/olderadultservices/ to find services, recreational activities and community engagement opportunities or call 703-324-7948.

Fairfax Area Commission on Aging

The Fairfax Area Commission on Aging consists of 12 volunteers appointed from Fairfax County, Falls Church and the City of Fairfax. Local area agencies on aging have community advisory committees that advice the agency on developing and coordinating community services, policies, programs and actions affecting older adults in the area. To learn more or to contact the commission go to www.fairfaxcounty.gov/dfs/olderadultservices/coa.

Enrolling Children in School

To enroll your children in school you may call 703-329-9831 to find out which school serves your new address or you may use the FCPS boundary locator at <http://boundary.fcps.edu/boundary>.

You may also visit the Fairfax County Public School's website and download the necessary forms to enroll students at www.fcps.edu/parents/start. To register your child you will also need proof of residency, proof of birth, documentation of previous education programs and health documentation.

Registering to Vote

You may register to vote year-round except during the 21 days prior to a General or Primary election, 13 days prior to a special election, or 6 days prior to a special election called by the Governor (Code of Virginia §§ 24.2-416). To register you must be a citizen of the United States, at least 18 years of age by the next general election, and a resident of Virginia.

You may vote Absentee in person at the Fairfax County Government Center at 12000 Government Center Parkway in Fairfax Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday, 8 a.m.—4:30 p.m., and Thursday, 8 a.m.—7 p.m. If you have any questions you may call 703-222-0776, fax 703-324-2205, or call 703-324-4700 for 24-hour recorded information.

To register to vote by mail, you can get a Virginia Voter Registration Application at the following sites:

Parks and Lakes

The Mount Vernon District is home to a variety of rivers and creeks, as well as more than three dozen parks that provide habitat for wildlife, flora and fauna. Residents and visitors alike, enjoy walking, hiking, running, biking, paddling, swimming, frisbee and mini golf, camping and many other recreational activities there. For more information on all parks located in Mount Vernon District visit: www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks.

Mount Vernon Nights Concert Series

The Fairfax County Park Authority, in partnership with the Board of Supervisors and with generous contributions from local businesses and corporations, presents a summer-long calendar of shows, concerts and movies for you and your family. The shows take place in county parks and are perfect for bringing a picnic dinner, blankets and lawn chairs to enjoy top notch local and regional entertainers. Best of all, they are close to home and free! Performances range from children's puppet shows to big bands, jazz, bluegrass, rock, classical and world music. The Mount Vernon Nights concerts take place Fridays and Saturdays from mid-June through the end of August.
